

Job vacancies

The Global Labour University- Freunde und Förderer e.V. is looking for the following staff members for a 2-year training and information project to support the exile work of the independent Belarusian trade unions, starting immediately.

- Project Manager (80% TVöD 13)

Tasks: Independent project management, development and implementation of online training and consultation services on human rights, labour law and socio-political issues, conceptualisation of workshops on the future of Belarus, cooperation with civil society and trade union partners in Germany and at international level including the International Labour Organisation.

Required qualifications: University degree in economics, law, political science or comparable qualification, experience as a project manager, good language skills in English and Russian/Belarusian. German language skills are an advantage.

The position is based in Bremen, with the possibility of working from home by arrangement.

- Head of Information and Public Relations (50% TVöD 13)

Tasks: Regular information on the situation of imprisoned trade unionists in Belarus, reports on the social, political and economic situation in Belarus, moderation of online workshops and support of Belarusian trade unions and civil society in solidarity and information campaigns.

Qualifications: At least 3 years of professional experience as a journalist or press officer for trade unions or other civil society organisations, good Russian/Belarusian language skills, English language skills.

The position is based in Bremen, with the possibility of working from home by arrangement.

- Web designer (50 % TVöD 9)

Tasks: The tasks include the design of websites as well as the production of video films, graphics and information material for training programmes and public relations.

Qualifications: Experience in web design, social media and video production.

Language skills Russian or Belarusian and English, German language skills are an advantage.

Place of work is Bremen, by arrangement there is the possibility to work in a home office.

- Accountant and administrative project assistant (25% TVöD 8)

Qualifications: Experience in accounting for publicly funded projects and project administration. German and English language skills required.

The position is based in Kassel, with the possibility of working from home by arrangement.

Please send applications in electronic form to personal@global-labour-university.org by 15 June.